

Zula Ray Qualls

January 26, 1931 - January 1, 2017

Zula Ray Qualls, a true faithful Christian, a good woman, a loving and faithful wife to Walter K. Qualls for 45 years and a wonderful, kind, caring, loving Mother to her daughters (Donna and Patricia). Zula Ray Qualls was born on January 26, 1931, she was a twin and the youngest of 9 brothers and sisters. She lived in Pleasantville, met and married Walter Kirk Qualls when she was 20 years old and moved to Sinking Creek where she made her home and lived for 65 years.

Zula Ray Qualls, not only was she a true faithful Christian, but a virtuous woman. She was a wonderful housewife, a loving mother and a talented artist. In her spare time, she enjoyed embroidery, crocheting, making clothes for the kids when they were growing up along with doll clothes, creating pillows, baking cookies, making her special candies for Christmas, and cooking wonderful meals for her family each and everyday. She enjoyed sitting on her porch and she admired God's creations of the beautiful flowers, especially her beautiful roses, trees, birds, squirrels and her yard. She enjoyed going to church and praising God and thanking him for each and everyday. She loved her daughters more than they will ever know and she loved and enjoyed her little puppy Molly.
